Student Protection

Purpose

This policy applies to Catholic Church personnel, employees and volunteers in Catholic schools and colleges in the Diocese of Cairns.

This policy does not apply to student bullying; a separate anti-bullying policy covers that matter.

The purpose of this policy is to record our commitment to the protection, safety and wellbeing of children and young people who are students in our schools.

Policy

We are committed to the protection, safety and wellbeing of students in our schools and compliance with child protection requirements mandated by law, Convention* and Church teachings.

We recognise that our students’ spiritual, psychological and physical wellbeing is paramount and recognise that every student has a fundamental right to protection from harm, risk of harm and a safe school environment.

Rationale

The love, care and healing Jesus showed for children calls us to emulate Jesus’s love for children in the Church’s ministry of education.

- The following guiding principles apply:
- a) respectful relationships recognising the dignity of each person, including students, is central to the life and teachings of Jesus and the Church;
 - b) the protection, safety and wellbeing of students is paramount;
 - c) every student has a fundamental right to protection from harm, the risk of harm and a safe school environment;
 - d) All members of the school community, including parents, staff and volunteers, have responsibility to protect and support the protection, safety and wellbeing of students;
 - e) students have the right to be heard about matters and decisions that affect their lives .
 - f) physical, psychological or sexual harm toward a student is never acceptable;
 - g) the primary responsibility for students is within their family and while the value of family should be respected, this should not be to the detriment of the safety and wellbeing of the student;

- h) students with special needs or vulnerabilities have the right to a safe schooling environment
- i) incidents involving suspected, likely and/or risk of harm must be swiftly managed with sensitivity, dignity, respect and in accordance with our duty of care, legislative requirements and the procedures and protocols of Catholic Education Services and the Church.

Consequences

We are committed to ensuring:

- a) the protection, safety and wellbeing of all students;
- b) upholding the rights and dignity of all students;
- c) full compliance with child protection requirements mandated by law, Convention* and Church teachings;
- d) the implementation and enforcement of our procedures and protocols about child protection;
- e) the reporting and management of student protection concerns as mandated by law relevant background checks, induction, curriculum and training about student protection
- f) our student protection policies and procedures are regularly monitored, reviewed and updated for changes in legislative and other requirements;
- g) where appropriate or required, our schools cooperate with statutory agencies involved in child protection; and
- h) the support and promotion of healing for students who are affected by harm.
